

CRA History and Boundaries

In May 1981 (Resolution 81-16), the City of Lake City made a finding of necessity under Chapter 163 of the Florida Statutes and started the process of establishing a Community Redevelopment Agency. In June 1981 (Resolution 81-17) the City Council created the Community Redevelopment Advisory Committee to assist the Community Redevelopment Agency in obtaining the data and public input necessary to establish the boundaries of the redevelopment district in November 1989 (Resolution 89-97) and formulate the Community Redevelopment Plan in December 1989 (Resolution 89-98). In December 1989 (Ordinance 89-661), the City Council declared itself to act as the Lake City Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) and establish a Redevelopment Trust Fund, as authorized under Chapter 163, Part III of the Florida Statutes. In November 1992 the Community Redevelopment Plan was revised (Resolution 92-069). In March of 1993, the City Council expanded and amended the boundaries of the Community Redevelopment Area (Resolution 93-021) and in April of 1993, the City Council approved an amendment to the Community Redevelopment Plan (Resolution 93-028) to include the change in the boundaries (Ordinance 93-730). In February 2009 (Resolution CRA09-1) once again amended the Community Redevelopment Plan by amending the boundaries of the Community Redevelopment Area (Ordinance 2009-1181).

As a dependent special district of the city, audits of the CRA are performed annually and included as part of the city's audit. This Report is available for inspection during business hours in the office of the City Clerk, located in City Hall at 205 North Marion Avenue, Lake City, Florida 32055.
