Public Comments

Marlin Feagle, County Attorney

At the last meeting, Commissioner DePratter said he didn't want the contract presented to the County Commission at the last minute, because he didn't have time to read it. As of the close of business, yesterday, June 1st, the County Attorney said there wasn't any contract ready to be presented to the Board.

COMMISSIONERS COMMENTS

ADJOURNMENT

The County Commission along with the County Staff and the County Attorney made up a zany rule and then when questioned about it, covered up their wrong doing for over a year. Tonight, Florida's infamous Columbia County will put their official stamp of approval on yet another violation of the public's right to speak.
